I believe that climate change is a real threat to our planet. I want leaders in government who follow the science to create real solutions.

I feel that strong public education needs to be supported for every student if America is to have a dynamic future. We need government leaders to ensure every child’s potential.

I believe that health care should be accessible to every American and not dependent on your economic status or geographic location. We support this by voting in leaders who will work for everyone.

Every person is America is entitled to the freedom to pursue their dreams and reach their goals regardless of race, religion, or gender identification. America includes us all. If we don’t vote, we are not represented.

Every election is determined by the people who show up and vote!

I refuse to be silent anymore. I want my voice heard by my vote!

I know that if I don’t speak up, someone who doesn’t represent me, will speak for me! I make my voice heard by voting!

I know that apathy cannot solve problems. We have to all be part of the solution. The best tool for that is voting.
Silence on Election Day is deafening to democracy. Make your voice heard by voting!

Many political leaders don’t care what our priorities are. We need to make them clear at the polls by voting.
